- All sales are final and non-refundable.
- Class credit may be considered upon request.
- Cancellations made less than 14 days before the start of the 1st class, are non-refundable and will receive a credit, minus a $20 administrative fee. The credit may be used toward future classes and expires 1 year from the date of processing.

Pick Up & Drop Off

- Brooklyn Ballet is located at 160 Schermerhorn, Brooklyn, NY, 11201.
- Students must be dropped off and picked up at the Brooklyn Ballet School entrance through the double glass doors on the street level labeled "Brooklyn Ballet".
- Parents or caregivers aren't permitted to wait inside 160 Schermerhorn or Brooklyn Ballet studio/lobby before, during, or after class.
- Parents or caregivers aren't permitted to store strollers, large bags, or additional belongings in the School lobby at any time.

Tardiness

- Students must arrive in BB Dress Code for all classes.
- Students who arrive more than 15 minutes late, will be admitted to class and will physically participate at the teacher's discretion.
- Students who arrive more than 30 minutes late, will be admitted to class, observe the remainder of class, and complete the Student Observation Form.
- Students who are consistently late may jeopardize their involvement in the School and Student Showcase.

Attendance, Missed Classes, and Make-Up Classes

- Students must attend all scheduled classes.
- Families must email info@brooklynballet.org of all missed classes.
- We can accommodate up to 3 missed classes per student per semester.
- We can accommodate up to 3 make-up classes per student per semester. Contact Staff at info@brooklynballet.org to schedule your student's make-up class.
- Students who miss more than 3 classes per semester may jeopardize their involvement in the School and Student Showcase.
- Classes canceled due to inclement weather will be rescheduled by the end of the semester.

Brooklyn Ballet Dress Code

brooklynballet.org/school/childrens-classes/dress-code

- Students must arrive dressed in BB Dress Code for all classes.
- Bathrooms and changing rooms are available, if needed.
- Students may dress in accordance with their gender identity and gender expression.
- Students with long hair must have their hair in a bun or similar hairstyle that is secure and away from their face.
- Jewelry (long earrings, necklaces, bracelets, watches, smart watches, rings, and anklets) is not permitted.
- Skirts are only permitted for Ballet III & IV at the teacher's discretion.
- Warm ups are permitted at the teacher's discretion.
- Tutus are not permitted.

Brooklyn Ballet School Studio Etiquette & Guidelines

- Students must remain quiet and calm while waiting in the School lobby before, during, and after class. Non-internet based activities, such as: reading, homework, and coloring are highly recommended.
- Specific in-studio guidelines are at the teachers' discretion. The following general in-studio guidelines apply to all students and classes:
 - Students should remain quiet during all classes.
 - Students should raise their hand when they have a question, comment, or concern and wait to be called upon by the teacher.
 - Students should remain standing during the entire class unless instructed by the teacher to sit down.
 - Students should notify the teacher at the beginning of class if they're sick, injured, or unable to fully participate.
 - Personal devices, such as: cell phones, smart watches, tablets, etc. are not permitted in the studio or to be used during class.
 - Students may only bring a water bottle into the studio. Personal items, backpacks, large bags, and scooters are not permitted in the studio.
 - Students should ask permission to go to the bathroom and/or water fountain. Street shoes or ballet slippers must be worn when going to the bathroom or water fountain.
 - Pre-Ballet I to Elementary Ballet II students must be escorted by Staff to/from the bathroom and water fountain at all times.
 - Level I-IV students are permitted to go to the bathroom and/or water fountain unescorted.
 - Students aren't permitted to lean and/or hang on the ballet barres.
 - Students aren't permitted to touch and/or move the mirrors, shades, or gymnastic mats.
 - Students aren't permitted to touch and/or adjust the in-studio sound system, laptop, or television.

Bathroom & Water Fountain

- Students should bring their own water bottle. Water fountains are available, if needed.

- Students should go to the bathroom before class.
- Students are permitted to go to the bathroom one at a time during class.
- All students, including Pre-Ballet I to Elementary Ballet II, must be fully toilet trained.
- Pre-Ballet I to Elementary Ballet II students will be escorted to/from the bathroom by Staff.
- Staff are available to assist Pre-Ballet I to Elementary Ballet II students with getting dressed after going to the bathroom, if needed.
- Level I-IV students are permitted to go to the bathroom and/or water fountain unescorted.

Family Observation, The Brooklyn Nutcracker, and Student Showcase

- All classes will have their Family Observation the last week of the Fall Semester.
- Families are welcome to observe classes inside the studio or through Brooklyn Ballet's storefront windows.
- Spring Semester, Elementary Ballet I & II, Ballet I-IV, Modern I-IV, and Jazz I/II & III/IV students will perform in Student Showcase at a local theater, exact location TBD.
- Spring Semester, Pre-Ballet I & II students will have a 2nd Family Observation, instead of Student Showcase.
- While it's not required, students (age 8 and up) are encouraged to audition for Brooklyn Ballet's production of The Brooklyn Nutcracker.
- Final casting for The Brooklyn Nutcracker is not guaranteed and is at the discretion of Staff & the Artistic Director.

Communication & Social Media

- Families should refrain from communicating directly with Faculty.
- For all questions and concerns, contact Brooklyn Ballet at info@brooklynballet.org or 718.246.0146.
- Students (age 3-17) are not permitted to communicate with Faculty or Staff on social media, including but not limited to Instagram, Facebook, Twitter/X, Snapchat and/or Tik Tok.

Media Release

- Brooklyn Ballet reserves the right to photograph and video all classes and performances for promotional purposes.
- If you do not want your student to be photographed or recorded, please notify Staff.

Private Lessons

- Private lessons with Faculty are available upon request. Email info@brooklynballet.org to schedule all private lessons.
- Families must contact Staff to schedule private lessons with Faculty, regardless if the lesson takes place at Brooklyn Ballet studio or another location.
